Adults

FOUNDATIONS CLASS

This class is an active group of adults who enjoy fellowship and participating in events. They enjoy friendship and their faith in God. The teacher chooses the subject matter and leads the group discussion. Meets in Ministry Center Room 103.

NEW BEGINNINGS CLASS

Dive into the Bible and explore places, facts, people and stories that are pillars of our faith. Led by Danny Barnwell and Jay Jeffries, this class is also connected to Breakfast with Santa, the Ronald McDonald House, St. John's Soup Kitchen, Reelfoot Ministries, Sponsor a Family at Christmas, Youth in Missions, Rio Bravo and Itza Buck. Meets in Ministry Center Room 101 B/C.

PARABLES CLASS

Facilitated by Bob Vornbrock and John Bonk, this exciting class will engage you in book discussions on Biblical and contemporary issues that affect our daily Christian walk. Join them not only for study, but also for outreach programs they support, such as St. John's Soup Kitchen, Reelfoot Ministries, Church Health Center, Food Pantry, Collierville Project Graduation, Rio Bravo and Hogar Montaña. Meets in Ministry Center Room 100.

SOJOURNERS CLASS

If you like in-depth Bible discussions, this is the class for you. Led by Bill Daniels, the Sojourners follow the "Adult Bible Studies" resource as a guide to a better understanding of Scripture. They also support ministries such as St. John's Soup Kitchen, Rio Bravo and Holy Community After School Program. Meets in Ministry Center Room 105.

Couples & Singles

20'S/30'S CLASS

This is a class for all types of young adults: college students, graduates, military, working professionals, singles and others. Led by Kristofer Roof, this class will study the weekly lectionary texts and discover how different Scripture passages are in conversation with one another. Both regular churchgoers and recent newcomers are welcome to attend. Simply bring yourself and invite a friend. Meets in the Young Adult Suite Room 101B.

CORNERSTONE CLASS

Join a dynamic group of people, both married and single, who alternate between studies of the Bible and studies that help us apply Biblical principles in fulfilling our many roles as parents, employees, caregivers and spouses. The class supports Rio Bravo, UM Neighborhood Centers, and has raised funds for mission by holding the wildly successful "Cornerstone Team Trivia Night." Meets in Ministry Center Room 109/110.

EMMAUS CLASS

A great place to be if you are either married or single, the Emmaus class engages in-depth discussions of how to apply Biblical teachings in the everyday life. This class enjoys meeting for quarterly socials, ladies and guys nights out, picnics, tailgate parties and more. They fully support our church's mission programs, the St. John's Soup Kitchen and outreach efforts in Fayette County. Meets in Ministry Center Room 106.

COVENANT CLASS

This class will explore how we as Christians can best serve God through our families, our relationships and our jobs by using short-term Bible studies and the weekly sermon texts. Led by Roy Thrash, this group is made up by young parents, young couples, working professionals and singles in their 30's. Meets in the Young Adult Suite Room 101A.

WESLEY CLASS

Comprised of married couples with children ranging in age from newborn to high school, this class will give you tools on how to live as a Christian in today's world. Led by David Dufour, this class incorporates video studies and is active in missions with Rio Bravo, helping families in need, Thanksgiving rolls fundraiser and more. They also enjoy a social life together through bowling, Halloween and Christmas parties, hay rides, girl's and guy's nights out, and swimming parties. Meets in Ministry Center Room 101A.

Special Needs

LOVING HEARTS CLASS

If you have a family member who is 13 or older who has a special need, this class is designed for them. Our church has a team of caring brothers and sisters who are called for this ministry and would love to have your loved one join this class on Sunday mornings. Meets in the Mission Center, located in the Ministry Center.

Senior Adults

AGAPE CLASS

As its name suggests, this is a warm and friendly class that enjoys praying, studying and socializing together. We are led by a rotating team of teachers. The Bible is central to the inspirational discussions on topics that relate to Christianity today. We support mission projects both locally and internationally. Meets in Ministry Center Room 102.

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP CLASS

This class enjoys lively discussions led by several teachers. They support the UM Health Center, St. Jude Hospital and Rio Bravo. Meets in Children's Ministry Center Room 22.

LADIES BIBLE CLASS

If you are a lady who loves the Lord and would like to know more about Him, join the Ladies Bible Class and learn how to apply his teachings into your life and into the lives of your family. This class also helps with the 1st Sunday offerings and wherever there is a need, especially during Christmas. Meets in the Bride's Room by the Sanctuary.

OPEN DOOR CLASS

A Spirit-filled, fun-loving class of "more mature" adults who love the Lord and each other, this class follows the "Adult Bible Studies," an official UMC resource. Led by a team of church leaders, Open Door engages in mission projects and raises resources for charities in need. Meets in Room 26/28 (Children's Ministry Center Dining Room).

SONRISERS CLASS

Journey through the Gospels with the Sonrisers. Also, join them in supporting Hogar Montaña, the Page Robbins Alzheimer's Center and other mission projects as needed. Meets in Ministry Center Room 107/108.
