

Stone

3/10/21

- READ ISAIAH 28:16.
- TAKE THE STONE FROM YOUR LENT AT HOME KIT, AND HOLD THE STONE IN YOUR HAND.
- SPEND A FEW MOMENTS IN PRAYER.

---

The people of the Old Testament often struggled with leadership. So often, their leaders and kings were evil and unrepentant. Even when their leaders and kings were good, they failed often. Yet, Isaiah reminds us that God is the cornerstone, the foundation, not kings. Stones have been a symbol of strength and stability. Let this stone remind you that God alone is our foundation. Even we falter and fail, God is there.

DISCUSS OR THINK ABOUT THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

- Is there anything in your life that prevents you from having God as your foundation, your cornerstone? If so, what is it?
- How can you rely on God and God alone?

PRAYER:

God, thank you for being our strong foundation—unchanging throughout the centuries. Help us rely on you, even when our lives seem unpredictable, weak, and unstable. When we get caught up in the storm, Lord, help us remember that You alone are our foundation of stone. Amen.
