

CAMPUS MINISTRIES & HIGHER EDUCATION

Job Description

Overview / Purpose

Lead the congregation to nurture the faith of every college student, both those from the congregation who go to college and students who are coming to the area for college. Uphold CUMC’s vision and mission.

Responsibilities

- Communicate with your staff liaison to discuss events and goals
- Update social media and communications with staff liaison
- Recruit volunteers to help with special projects
- Building relationship with students who come to nearby campuses
- Lead the congregation to support United Methodist colleges and campus ministries so that students will grow in their understanding of the gospel and become better equipped for daily living as faithful disciples
- Inform the congregation of and promote higher education and campus ministry – especially United Methodist schools and United Methodists’ special interest in higher education for all ethnic groups and the 12 historically black colleges
- Keep records of the congregation’s high school seniors, forwarding their names to church-related colleges in the annual conference
- Provide opportunities for high school students and their parents to consider career and college opportunities
- Track college students associated with your congregation, sending their contact information to college ministries and Wesley Foundation directors at their campuses; and help the congregation stay in touch with them
- Develop ministries for college students who are in your community or who are back home from college for vacations
- Inform college students and their parents about United Methodist scholarship and loan programs
- Lead the congregation to observe United Methodist Student Day, collecting an offering for loans and scholarships; and advocates for recognition of other higher education observations. Involve students in leadership when they are home, and include students from local schools who may be away from home
